IRISH REGULARS LAUNCH DRIVE TO TRAP REBELS

Free State Troops Strive to Round up Foes on Eve of Epochal Gathering.

BY DANIEL O'CONNELL.

(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.) DUBLIN, Sept. 8 .- Free State troops today began a sweeping movement to round up the republican irregulars, particularly in Limerick and Tipperary countles, preliminary to the meeting of the Dail Eireann in this city tomorrow, Several battles were fought. Many republicans

Communication between Dublin and Cork is still interrupted. This led to a recurrence of the rumor that Eamonn De Valera had been captured. This report is discredited. even by government officials, although it is admitted that Erskine Childers, De Valera's chief alde, may have been arrested.

Whether De Valera will make a dramatic appearance in Dublin tomerrow to attend the Dail meeting is problematical. It is unlikely that the government would interfere with his movements unless he disturbed the peace or openly urged revolu-

Plan State Park as Mark of Memory to Song Writer

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 8-Creation of a state park on the banks of the Wabash river, the stream made famous by him, may be established by the state of Indiana in memory of Paul Dresser, author of "On The Banks of the Wabash," the Hoosler state song.

This is the hope of Gov. Warren T. McCray, who, after reading an item in a newspaper, written by some person who had called attention to the fact this noted Hoosier son had been forgotten by the his

BOLD THUGS STEAL GEMS IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Sept. 8 .- (By U. P.) -Adolph Kunstler, New York jeweler, arrived in Chicago yesterday to dispose of a quantity of expensive jewelry in exchange for $50,000. Today he is in a hospital and has neither the jewelry nor the $50,000.

After spending the night at a prominent north side hotel. Kunstler arose for an early breakfast at a nearby restaurant. Three armed bandits entered the restaurant, slugged him, and departed with the jewels.
